To Whom It May Concern,

This letter is a recommendation for Miss Nehal Jagadisha Reddy who has been a volunteer as Rotakid at Rotary Club of Lagos Island (RCLI) for the past Two years. Neha is an active member of the Rotakid and can be describe as empathetic, committed, hardworking, reliable, emotionally intelligent, maintains a positive attitude, and a team player.

During her time with RCLI she has contributed to many programs run by the club. Few to mention

- 1- SAKHI Project –program for distribution of sanitary pads to adolescent Girl child in Government Schools in Lagos,
- 2- Cervical Cancer awareness and Vaccine Drive- Programme to create awareness in Girl Child in Government schools and different communities in Lagos.
- 3- Reading Material and books distribution to small kids in different communities of Lagos.

She has demonstrated her ability to work well with the most vulnerable populations, including helping with educating and creating awareness through public speaking engagements. Nehal actively participates in counseling and encouraging kids and their parents about hygiene and awareness about the importance of education.

Nehal cares about the well-being of others, and always maintains a professional yet compassionate disposition. Her volunteer efforts and contributions to Rotary World Programme driven by RCLI have had a positive impact and are greatly appreciated.

If you would like more information or specific examples from our time working together, feel free to contact us.

For further information, contact the undersigned.

Sincerely,

For: Rotary Club of Lagos Island
